

Match Commentary

 Commentary | Write and perform radio commentary.

Radio commentary is a descriptive, spoken account of an event or performance as it happens. This helps the audience to follow a game or sporting event by the commentator describing what's happening.

Task: Write and perform some radio commentary for the Reading vs. Sheffield United match.

Mute the commentary sound and think about how you can describe the action happening on the pitch. Remember you can watch it, pause it and rewind as many times as you wish.

A helpful squad list and notes page have been created for you to help!

Why not read the match report to inspire you and 'magpie' some ideas too?

Top tips:

-  Write in the present tense.
-  Use exciting vocabulary!
-  Think about your tone, pitch and speed of voice.
-  Watch Tim Dellor from BBC Radio Berkshire commentary advice.

We would like to see what commentary you produce. Send us your commentary to community@readingfc.co.uk or tweet us @RFCCommunity
